Please write in FULL SENTENCES.

1. The chapter starts after years have passed. We learn that 'Muriel was dead' and that 'Bluebell, Jessie, and Pincher were dead'. Which significant human has also died by this point?
2. How do we know that the pigs have continued to over-eat?
3. The farm is now prosperous, but some of the luxuries imagined by Snowball have not been put into place. What does Napoleon say brings about the 'truest happiness'?
4. Finish this quotation: 'neither pigs nor dogs produced any _____'
5. What does Clover see which caused her 'terrified neighing'?
6. What does Napoleon carry in his trotter?
7. Which single maxim has been changed – and what has it been changed to?
8. Benjamin agrees to read out what was written on the wall. What has replaced the Seven Commandments?
9. The pigs host a noisy dinner party. Who gives a long speech about harmony between pigs and human beings?
10. What comparison does Pilkington make with 'lower animals'?
11. It is announced that the name 'Animal Farm' has been changed. What has it been changed to?
12. Finish the last line of the novel: 'The creatures outside looked from pig to man, and from man to pig, and from pig to man again; but already it was impossible to say _____
_____'
