1. The opening of Chapter Seven describes the weather. Give 2 details about the conditions described.
2. The animals are 'always cold, and usually hungry as well.' But which two animals never lose heart?
3. The pigs deceive the outside world – they cover up their food shortages. How?
4. Who are the hens sometimes see to represent in Russian history?
5. The hens are angry at the idea of having to surrender their eggs. How do they protest?
6. What rumour do the pigs spread about Snowball?
7. Squealer claims that Snowball has sold himself to Frederick. Fill the gaps in this quotation about Snowball: 'He was Jones's _____ all the time.'
8. What happens to the four young pigs who had tried to protest about the trade and abolition of meetings?
9. What happens to a large group of other animals, after this horrific event?
10. 'Beasts of England' is replaced by a shorter song. What are the words to this song?
